PHILADEITHIA, Pa. May So. The thirty-six posts of the G. A. R. located in this city celebrated Pecoration Day with the usual ceremonies, and business men and thizens generally joined in the observance of the day. Large crowds of people visited the numerous cemeerles in the neighborhood of the city. Members of Gen George B McClelini Memorial Association visited Trenton, N. J., where they decorated the grave of "Little Mac." Hey were accompanied by several other organizations. Charles Emory Smith and Rev. Russell II. Conwell delivered the oration at Gen. Mende's grave in Lanrei Hill. Accept. Washington, May 30. The Post to-day prints a special from Cincinnati, which says Mr. Bisine will adhere to his letter declar ng that he is not a candidate. He will accept the nomination if it is tendered him with some show of acclaim. His name will not be formally presented to the con-vention at Minneapolis, though he will be balloted for and if nominated will ac-cept.
